

Data protection

Personal data will only be processed, passed on and stored to the extent necessary for the purposes of each 'tick box'. The legal basis for each processing purpose is the consent of the submitter, which can be revoked separately at any time with effect for the future.

Further obligatory information on data protection can be found for Bentley at <https://www.bentley.global/data-protection> and for the European Vascular Course (EVC) at <https://vascular-course.com/privacy.php>
